BOARD TOOK NO ACTION.

Shall Teachers Tutor Their Own Pupils r Pay? Asked in Waterbury.

Just to make a quorum of the board of education Monday evening Commissioner Walter E. Monagan, as the handlest to reach, was telephoned for says the Waterbury Democrat. He came, but he did not stay long, going away rather than be a party to something he did not wish to see pussed and in present the prevent its passage. in order to prevent its passage, a time ago Commissioner Reliey ght to the attention of the board fact that teachers in the high ol were giving private lessons to pupils for pay. It developed later this avatem of what one commisthat this system of what one commis-sioner called "spoils" was in operation all along the line down to the grades. Superintendent Tinker was asked what he thought of it and he said it was news to him, it had its good features as well as its bad ones, but he would leok it up and with the assistance of the committee on teachers would re-port later. Last evening he sent in the report and it was that which was the cause of the row that sent Com-missioner Monagan away. The report is as follows.

TERRIBLE ITCHING

Spread Over Hands and Arms-Could Not Sleep - Scratched and Bled - Had Doctor 7 Months.

CUTICURA CURED IN 2 WEEKS

"My daughter, twelve years of age, was afflicted with a terrible itching of the hands which was so bad at night that she was unable to sleep. She scratched berself until she bled. The trouble bean in the shape of small pustules which produced severe itching and then a hard scab formed on top. From the fingers it extended over the hand and as far as the elbows. The doctor said it was ecsema, and that recovery would necessarily be elow. He treated my daughter for seven months but the trouble always grew worse. But after kind used the Cuticura Soap, Ointmentiand Pills for two weeks her hands were healed. Mrs. M. Strecker, South Haven, Minn., April 1 and July 7, 1908." er Drug & Chem. par parish house, just being completed and an incident that occurred in it, in which several of the foremost workers of the church were concerned.

The parish house was designed as a meeting place for the Girls' Friendly society and the Men's club, as well as the Ladies' guild. To celebrate the completion of the new house the Men's club, had planned for a bile. this had planned for a big supper there on Wednesday night of this week. There is a host excellent howling alley in the cellur and some of the members of the Men's club were down there on Saturday afternoon try-ing out the alley.

The men all held a consultation and one volunteered to get a gun and shoot the intruder. So, while the volunteer obtained the gun, the rest watched to see that the game did not escape them.

The man with the gun returned and setting in a spot where he could observe the beast, he took careful aim and fired. The report of the gun was followed by the smell of gunpowder and other things, the other things being far the strongest.

The men thought hot upon the order of their going but they went at once and were glad to get outside and breathe the pure air. LEATHER PRICES LOWER. Local Dealer Declares That the Hide Market is Depreciating.

tions which have been taking place in the leather market.

"Although the present prices on hides are much higher than the prices at the corresponding time last year, they have depreciated considerably during the past week. This depreciation is due, no doubt to the fact that farmers and cattle dealers wishing to profit by the high prices offered in the hide market, killed off all their old cattle, and sold the hides. This naturally tended to reduce the prices on the product.

Tame Deer in Wilton-

Last June as Mr. Moriarty of Wilton was going through the woods back of the reservoir he found a fawn, exhausted and almost ready to die. Its mother had evidently been chased by dogs and had outran the fawn. Mr. Moriarty carried the fawn over to, his sister. Mrs. Thomas Noian, who took it into the house and fed it on warm milk. The deer has now become domesticated and frisks and plays around with the members of the family. And whenever it is startled it will run to Mrs. Nolan.

states that a decree of divorce was granted in that city on Saturday jointly to the Rev. Royal W. Raymond, formerly a prominent Methodist clergyman of Bridgeport and Stratford, and Clara H. Raymond, on the ground of incompatibility alleged by both.

The couple united in the petition under the Washington statutes and represented to the court that their relations were not agreeable for the reason stated and there was a perfect understanding as to that condition of their domestic life. The couple were married 14 years ago in Newbruryport, Mass, and during their period of residence in Beidgeport they seemed to be happy.

Mr. Raymond was a young and energetic pastor and a hard worker. He was pastor of the Summerfield M. E. charch, Bridgeport, and the Stratford M. S. church and was popular in both congregations. After leaving Bridgeport he became superintendent of the Anti-Saloon league of New Jerseyland New York, and in that work he had many exciting experiences. His had many exciting experiences. His presence at the New York conference of the Methodist church in April, 1907, with a good sized revolver in his hip pocket excited some attention.
